

Who am I, really? Managing multiple personalities in the Teendom.

Most teens have multiple profile personalities on multiple social networking sites. But, are you effectively managing your online spaces?

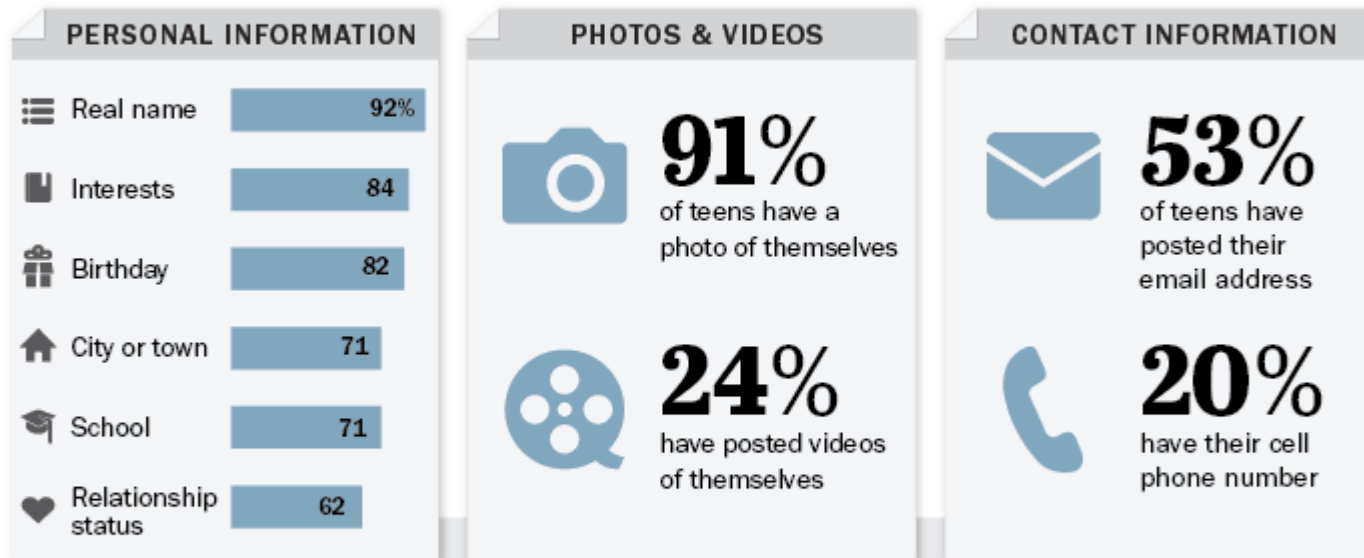

Exit Outcome

Students will reflect on the benefits and the risks of social networking and how they can better manage multiple online spaces.

Common Sense Media

What do teens share on social media?

Percent who share information on the profile they use most often

But is the information real?

26% of teen social media users say they post fake information on their profile to help protect their privacy.

Common Sense Media

Privacy on Social Media

Teens choose different privacy settings depending on the the social media site they use.

NETWORK	 PUBLIC Everyone can see it	PARTIALLY PRIVATE Friends of friends	 PRIVATE Only friends/followers
 Among teens with Facebook profiles	14%	25%	60%
 Among teens with Twitter profiles	64%	N/A	24%

Pew Research Center

Poll: Teens migrating to Twitter

TUESDAY MAY 21, 2013 | JENNIFER C. KERR FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Poll says teens sharing more on social media sites, trending more to Twitter

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new poll finds that teens are sharing more about themselves on social media. They're also moving increasingly to Twitter to avoid their parents and the "oversharing" that they see on Facebook.

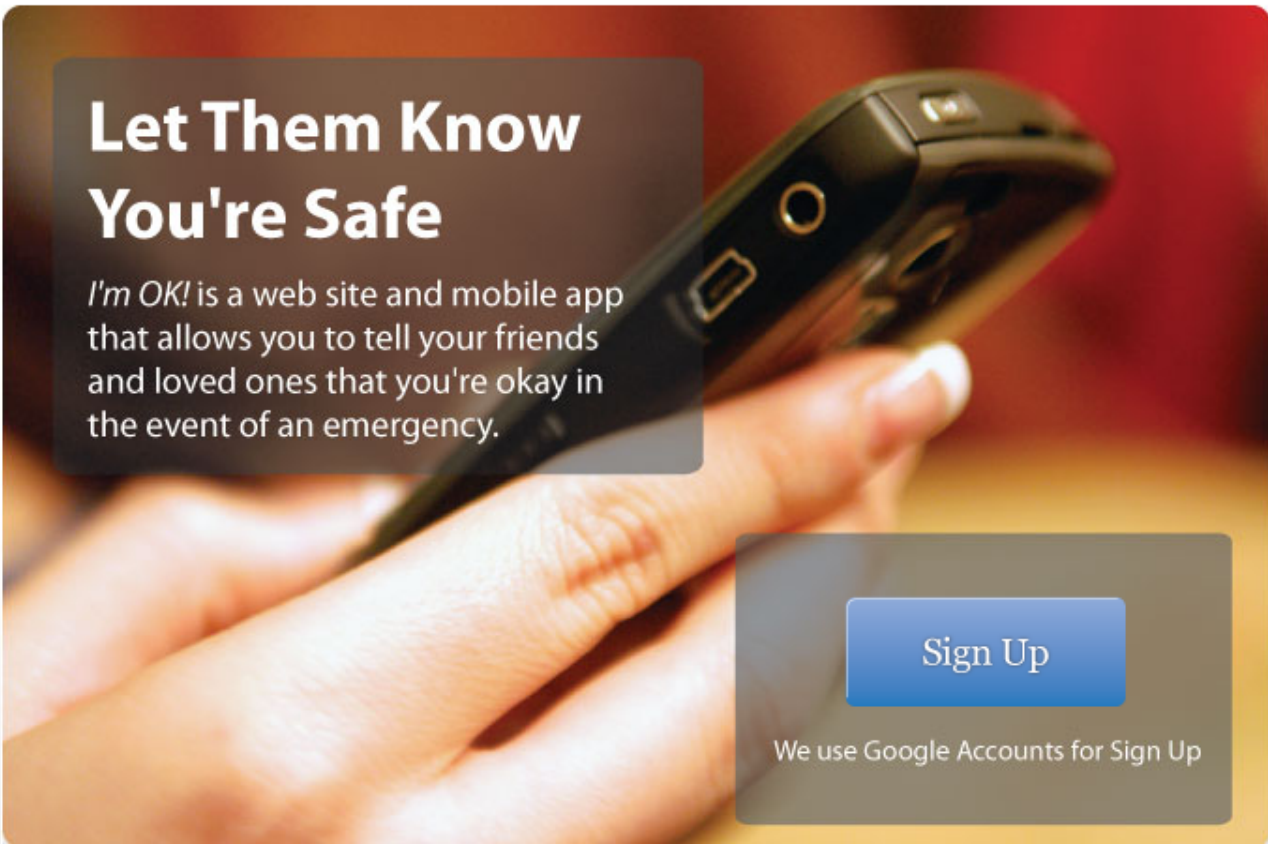

In the Pew Research Center poll, 94 percent of teens who are social media users have a profile on Facebook — flat from the previous year. Twenty-six percent of teen social media users were on Twitter. That's more than double from the figure in 2011 of 12 percent.

In focus groups, teens said there were too many adults on Facebook and too much sharing of inane details, like what a friend ate for dinner.

Copyright (2013) Associated Press. All rights reserved. This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten, or redistributed.

What are some of the benefits of social networking?

- Students brainstorm in small groups.

Let Them Know You're Safe

I'm OK! is a web site and mobile app that allows you to tell your friends and loved ones that you're okay in the event of an emergency.

Sign Up

We use Google Accounts for Sign Up

What are some of the risks of social networking?

- Students brainstorm in small groups.

Student Panel

What are some of the social networking issues faced by WHS students?

How could these issues be addressed?

What can all students do to address these issues?

Student Panel - Scenario 1

You hear from a friend that someone started a Facebook Page using someone else's name and has edited and posted images that threaten that person's reputation.

What should you do?

Student Panel - Scenario 2

You find out that a Hate Page was created about your school. You follow that page to make sure nothing is posted about you. You notice that several inappropriate remarks are made about certain people at school.

What should you do?

Student Panel - Scenario 3

You are getting ready to apply for a college scholarship and are asked to friend the organization's Facebook page.

Or, you are applying for a job and the personnel representative sends a request to follow your Twitter account?

What should you do?